Dedication

It is an ideal of democracy that two nations should live in peace and respect the rights of others. To keep the peace it requires tolerance and understanding. We must educate people in the art of peace — not war. We must believe in our hearts that war must never come again. We must labor on until:

All peoples of the earth
Share but one common birth,
One destiny.
One sun shines over all,
Alike we rise or fall,
May we all dwell in peace and unity.
Great God of all the earth,
Lead us to know the worth
Of sympathy.
May fellowship increase,
May all contentions cease,
Then we will dwell in peace and unity. — Patricie Koenig

Class Prophecy

Times change! Even now when I think back when we graduated from GVHS, I laugh. Carl Ary, the class clown, is Vice-President of Brubaker & Brubaker, manufacturers of plastic diapers. This came in handy for Beverly Mitchell, who is now married and has six daughters. She's topped only by Geraldine Krohn and her eight boys (and George, too)! They have bridge clubs every once in awhile to catch up on all of the latest on the 54'ers! Audrey Fisher usually arrives on her tractor. (They live on a farm, you know)! She usually has to hurry home in time to do the milking. Alberta Bailey and Shirley Weir are practicing the art of "Living Alone and Liking It" but they do run a bachelor apartment as a side-line. Marie Woodruff and Roseann Boehme, famous opera singers, usually arrive fashionably late in their new 1964 Cadillac. Frank Guile, one of our former classmates is their agent, and he always comes along to "protect" them. Beverly Larimore hardly ever makes the little "get togethers" because she's the U.S. Ambassador to Russia. When she does, she really tells us some "interesting" stories. While in Russia, she attended the Olympics and saw Norm Miller win first in seven events, including debating and checkers. But, back home, Leroy Hale and Allen Farmer have taken over the Homer & Jethro show. Janet Mount is a PE instructor in dear ole' GVHS. She leaves her two little "Burdens" in the care of the Home Ec I girls. This is perfectly all right with their teacher, Lillian Jacob, formerly Lillian Stadsholt. The girls say that Lillian is a wonderful teacher.

I guess that's all of us now! Times sure have changed!
